Even before the exhibit was set up people started arriving on the scene to view the paintings. The pictures were displayed on easels next to the bandstand with the craft exhibit alongside the stand. An outstanding variety of work in all media were represented. Since the exhibit consisted of two examples per artist the number of paintings which were there demonstrated how large an interest there is in painting. Apparently a good percentage of the town is engaged in some creative art work. The committee which is responsible for this very successful show is comprised of Mrs. John DeMello, Mrs. Robert Seeley, Mrs. Alvin Downing. Mrs. Lawrence Lamarre, Mrs. Charles Fortunately the threatened rain failed to develop until just as the exhibit drew to a close. A few sprinkles fell just as the paintings were being taken down. Even then people were still arriving at the wharf to view it. The show was most interesting, and highly pleasing to the many spectators.

MATTAPOISETT BOY BECOMES HERO

Thomas (Tommy) Borges, known to most everyone who frequents the Mattapoisett wharf as a polite 15 year old with an extreme interest and knowledge of boats, had a once in a lifetime experience recently. He was invited to take a boat trip to Cuttyhunk with a family and during the trip the mother and small child went below, and the owner went forward to clean the windshield. Tommy remained in the cockpit and soon realized the owner was not aboard. Assuming the responsibility he took over the controls of the hydraulic controlled boat, brought it about, retraced the course and found the owner in the water, came along side him in true marine fashion, extended the boarding ladder and aided him aboard.

Today when we hear so much about our juveniles being irresponsible, it is a pleasure to point out one who isn't. It is another concrete example of good bringing up, as here is one case of a polite, well mannered lad, and there are many children like him, who when the chips are down did what comes naturally - the right thing. We congratulate him.

idea of American life and people. Our own youngsters, in Europe, living the same way with European families are gathering a knowledge and love for the people there, and a similar understanding of them that could be gained in no other way. Through all their lives, these exchange students, from both sides of the world, will be influenced by what they know, rather than what they are told.

This week, students from Finland are visiting Mattapoisett just before they return to their homes and families. Now they really have two families and one of them is the American family with which they have made their homes for the past year. After meeting and talking with them, I can well imagine that they will be missed in the U. S. They are a fine group of representatives for Finland, friendly and obliging to this reporter and we thank them for meeting with us so that people in this area can learn something of their impressions of this country. We know that the host families in Mattapoisett are delighted to have them here.

Mariana Cedercreutz of Helsinki, Finland is the daughter of Baron and Baroness Jonas Cedercreutz. Baron Cedercreutz is an architect. Mariana has been studying at Harborfields High School, Centerport, Long Island, and has been a member of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Kane. She is now staying with Mr. and Mrs. David Turner of Church Street, Mattapoisett. The Turner's daughter, Roberta, is spending the summer as a member of a family in France as a part of the student exchange program. Mariana is interested in art and likes to swim, sail and water ski. She said, "My American family was just wonderful. We enjoyed the same things and really got along extremely well. My American sister, who was my age, and I were best friends and did everything together." Mariana liked her U. S. high school but found the studies much easier than at her school at home. "But," she said, "then, of course in Finland the whole population does not go to high school, this is the big advantage." She found the Long Island climate similar to home except that it was a little warmer and more humid. She said, "As a whole, this year in America made me love and admire American people and I will never forget all the things they did for me!!"

Mariana Cedercreutz

Katriina Virtanen of Helsinki, Finland is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paavo Virtanen. She has been living as part of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace McCormack in Rio Vista, California. For a year she has attended Rio Vista High School in that city. She is staying with the family of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Kelsey of Atkinson Way, Mattapoisett. She likes books and music, and her favorite sport is skiing.

with Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Ross of Barstow Street, Mattapoisett for this week. Kristi likes traveling and literature, loves the ocean and likes skiing. She said the people in the U. S. "are very friendly and not as materialistic as they are described to be." "In school here," she said, "there is more emphasis on social studies and extracurricular activities. In Finland secondary school is more academic." She likes long week-ends and corn on the cob. Kristi dislikes most television programs. She is not alone.

Markku J. Aarola

Markku J. Aarola, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aarola of Naantali, Finland, has been living with the family of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Lightner in Marion, Ohio. He has been attending Harding High School in that city. In Mattapoisett he is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Charles McIntire of Hammond Street. His U. S. school he said, "was a public school with fairly high standards of education. The classmates and teachers were helpful and cooperative." He found the people of Marion, Ohio were very helpful, courteous and cooperative whether they were young or old. "I liked my family, my school and my community," Mark said. Being interested in sports since he likes soccer, basketball and ice hockey, he said, "when our football team won, I was happy and when they lost, I was unhappy. One of his interests is photography. He said, "There are very many differences in the organization of our nations, in the people and in almost everything, but after all we (Finland and the United States) are countries of western civilization." He found many compatible interests for he said, "I cannot mention any special dislikes, because they are so irrelevant."

can tourists. Therefor, they do not know the truth. A very common picture about Americans is that they are extremely rich and that they do not even need to work (they live on their interests). During the year, "I have been converted. I know Americans do work and that you can find, over here, an average person as well as a rich one. As to the friendliness of the American people, it is remarkable. I really enjoyed my stay in the United States." He also said. "American schools are easier than ours and much more informal." On climate - "The climate of Knoxville was very much different than the one I am used to in Finland. In Knoxville we had two or three inches of snow for some days. In Finland there is 2 to 3 feet of snow for 5 months of the year."

Matti Hyrck of Helsinki, Finland is the son of Mrs. Eva Hyrck. He attended Woodrow Wilson High School in Dallas, Texas, living with the family of Mr. and Mrs. Martin W. Schwettman. He is staying with Mrs. Albert Norlander of North Street. He is interested in photography and music. He said, "Americans are a friendly and sociable people. In, for instance, at school social life is very important." He said that the purpose of schools here is different in that nearly all Americans go to high school. "Only 20% of the children do in Finland. Consequently, the schools in Finland have higher academic standards, while U. S. schools are more practical." He found a great climatic difference. "The Texas climate is quite a bit hotter, often above 100, while it never gets hotter than 80 or 85 in Finland. Matti said that he found that Americans tend to go along with the crowd and "don't so much see the trouble of thinking for themselves." He said, "The thing that I most admire about Americans is their attitude toward strange people. They first think good about people, then bad if necessary."

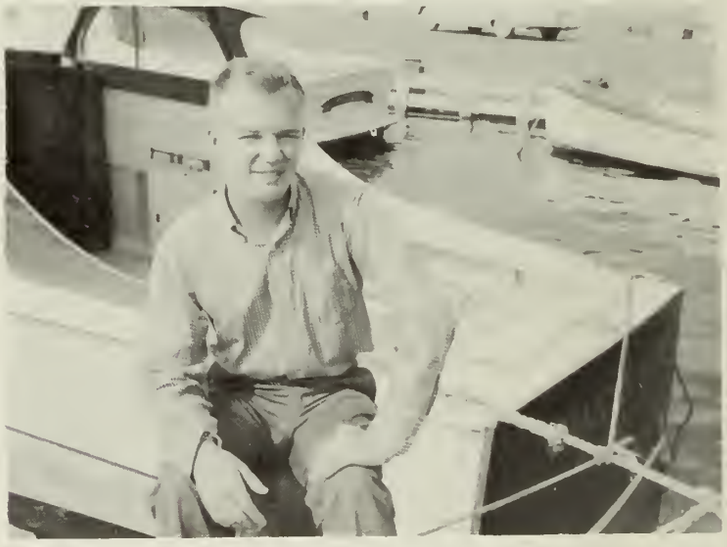
Martin Kihlman is the son of Mr. Ake and Mrs. Margareta Kihlman of Tampere, Finland. He has been attending Montclair High School in Montclair, New York. He is staying with Mrs. Albert Norlander of North Street. While going to school, he was with the family of Mr. and Mrs. Carl M. Mann of Montclair. Martin is interested in drama, music and literature, and likes motion pictures. He found, "The only thing that's really different is the school system, which in Europe is entirely academic, while the U. S. concentrates on developing specialists. You get a wider range of subjects back home, but it seems that what the world really needs today is a society of specialists."



Martin Kihlman

Here is a group of 8 intelligent young people out of perhaps hundreds from a great variety of European countries. Many of them have seen far more of our country than most of us have had the opportunity to see. They have lived among us as we are. With a fresh eye they probably see us better than we can see ourselves and they can make comparisons with other methods and ideas that they have known at home. They are taking something home with them that they will retain and that is a true image of us and our country. They take also the respect and affection of their United States families and friends. Our faults, our good points and our efforts and they way we think and live are in their hands and minds. We are content that they be our ambassadors in Finland for they are honest and we know each other. If this kind of contact could be made with every country, freely and openly, there would be a great understanding between peoples and peace for all of us. It has been a great pleasure to meet these young people from Finland.

GRANGE FAIR

Additional news in regards to the Mattapoisett Grange Fair, to be held August 26th, is the ham and bean supper that will be served at 6 o'clock during the Fair. Otto Kellish, Joseph Furtado, Albert Pemberton, with Carlton Vaughan, Jr., Valerie Randall and Barry Denham of the Juvenile Grange, have been added to the supper committee. Mrs. Joseph Farwell, Jr. is making the tickets, and the posters, made by Martha Heuberger, have been placed in The Boutique, Tinkham's Pharmacy and the Village Drug Store.

The usual attraction for the very young set will be in charge of Richard Rawcliffe who will supervise the "Grabs".

Stores and shops will be called upon for donations to help with the merchants' auction. Our town merchants have been a yearly source of kindness to the Grange in this re-

Dear friends,

The least suggestion of show or display in any funeral service is in poor taste.

It has always been our thought that the funeral director should be as inconspicuous as possible. The many details involved should be looked after quietly, respectfully...the family should be relieved of all possible responsibility.

That is our duty...our service.

Respectfully,

Carl C Cornwell

SALE TO AID BLIND

At a recent meeting held at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Robert Whitcomb, Hawes Hamlet, Wareham, plans were completed for the "Sale of Articles Made by the Blind" which is to be held in the chapel of the Wareham Congregational Church, Main Street, Wareham, this Wednesday, August 2nd, from 10 A.M. to 5 P.M.

Attending the meeting were Mrs. Merrill Maynard, director of sales; Mrs. Rosalie Perry, assistant director of the Mass. Board of Education, Division of the Blind; Mrs. James A. Arne and Miss Amy E. Brewer of the Marion volunteers; Mrs. Samuel Goldfarb of the Onset volunteers and Mrs. John B. Freeman, publicity chairman. Also attending was "Hildy", seeing eye dog who accompanied her mistress, Mrs. Maynard.

This event is sponsored by a group of interested persons in Wareham and Marion who are working in cooperation with the Mass. Department of Education, Division of the Blind. Many attractive and useful articles have been made entirely by blind persons throughout the State and will be offered for sale. It is hope many will avail themselves of this opportunity to see this unusual demonstration of what can be accomplished by these handicapped persons if given the opportunity. The money derived from the sale of each article goes directly to the person who made same. No admission is charged. Coffee and doughnuts will be served
